

The Echo 1956

James A. Eaton

FOREWORD

We, the editors of this annual, take great pleasure in presenting to you the ECHO, our record of achievements and activities for the school year of 1955-1956. We feel that our school can be compared accurately with the way our government operates. We, the People of Sherwood Central School, have the same chance in expressing our views and opinions to our administrative body as the people of our country have to express their wishes to our legislative body in Washington, where our representatives work according to our needs and desires. This annual is the pictorial and written record of

Friend

Mrs. Fitzgerald will never be forgotten by her acquaintances at Sherwood nor will the memory of her helpful guidance and advice which she has given fade away. We, the editors, on behalf of the class of 1956, wishing to pay her tribute, hereby dedicate the ECHO to her.

SHE IS OUR CHOICE

ADMINISTRATION

h m w

OUR PRESIDENT

DONALD M. GAZLEY
Supervising Principal

Let's open our Echo together. Of course, we'll try to find our own picture first. After the initial shock, we say, "I never take a good picture," and then we begin to look through the rest of the book. As we turn the pages from the Faculty through to the final cover, we are witnessing the life of our school, our classmates, and our program. Looking at a grade picture, we see not only our friends, but also the projects we have completed, and a bit of our classwork on the bulletin boards. A high school class picture allows us to be an observer of the room setting, or a participant in an algebraic problem or a scientific experiment. We see a tumbling class in gym, a driver education class in action, a musical ensemble, a meeting of the Student Council, the Howlin' Lion and Echo Staff at work.

Whether the picture is in the classroom or on the playing field, we will have a visual memory for our keepsake corner. I think that most of us have saved our high school yearbooks, and enjoy returning to our Alma Mater, if only by way of the pages.

For this reason I am complimenting our Echo Staff for its interest and work in helping us to preserve the many fond memories of our student life in Sherwood Central.

Donald M. Gazley

AS AMBASSADORS OF

CLASS HISTORY

OUR STORY

When our class entered into high school, it consisted of twenty-five members. As Freshmen, we elected as our officers: Mona Lussier, President; Donald Culver, Vice President; Beatrice Ward, Secretary-Treasurer. Patricia Howland and Roger Simkin represented us on the Student Council. We were the first group to get our Senior rings in our Freshman year.

As we became Sophomores, our class dwindled to nineteen members. We started in earnest as a group to earn money for our Senior trip. First, we undertook selling magazines which was quite successful. Our Sophomore dance, which we decided to call "The Bunny Hop," was also colossal—realizing $80.21. We continued to work efficiently under our class officers who were Trudy Reynolds, President; Carol Chamberlain, Vice President; Beatrice Ward, Secretary; and Shirley Skillet, Treasurer. Mona Lussier and Donald Culver voiced our opinions in Student Council.

Our Junior year proved to be a busy and prosperous one. Our activities that year included a Halloween dance, Senior Banquet, turkey supper, selling of stationery and hats, participation in the Junior-Senior plays, and the Junior Prom, which we called "The Stairway to the Stars." The king and queen were Donald Culver and Leona Piatt. All of the students of the class and their dates were the attendants.

The officers for this year were Donald Culver, President; Donna McWilliams, Vice President; Carol Chamberlain, Secretary; with Anita Brambley handling the purse strings. Our Student Council Representatives were Gertrude Reynolds and Richard Goodelle.

A big change that occurred in our Senior Year was that Mr. Simmonds became our homeroom teacher and advisor. Miss Calmunci dropped teaching to become Mrs. Fitzgerald after being our homeroom teacher for five years. Our class officers were: President, Yvonne Cottrell; Vice President, Shirley Skillet; Secretary, Beatrice Ward; and Treasurer, Richard Goodelle. Our representatives in the Student Council were Anita Brambley and Thomas Ryan, with Donald Culver as Council President and Roger Simkin as Council Treasurer.

At the beginning of school, we sold Christmas cards. An operetta was sponsored by the music and English departments and included participants from the entire high school. The event proved to be a great success. After this, all the Seniors looked forward to our trip to New York in April, for which we had worked so hard. This trip included staying at the Hotel New Yorker and a tour around parts of New York by Van Zile Tours. A big attraction was the famous Easter Parade on Fifth Avenue.

Graduation! Four wonderful years for all Seniors! To all Seniors—Congratulations, and the best of luck in the future.

The seventeen members of the Junior class under the guidance of Mrs. Stedman, started the year by electing Ted Marshall, President; Dave Fitzgerald, Vice President; Loretta Rejman, Secretary; Ken Brill, Treasurer. Judy Van Liew and Dave Wunder were chosen to represent the class in Student Council.

During the year we have sold stationery, taken part in the operetta, "The Fortune Teller," sponsored a skating party, and had the Junior Prom. Through these activities we have earned money for our Senior trip and have added much pleasure to our third year of high school as we prepare to take the place of the Seniors as ambassadors of good will for We, the People.
